

IWLCA Announces Division I Academic Squads
50 teams earn distinction; three named Merit Squads

10 August 2008

The IWLCA has announced that 50 institutions in Division I have earned Academic Squad honors, including three that have been named Merit Squads. Teams that have a collective GPA of 3.0 or greater earn the distinction of Academic Squad; the squads with the three highest team GPAs earned the honor of being named a Merit Squad. Iona led all schools with a team GPA of 3.455 and was named a Merit Squad, as were Albany and national semifinalist Duke. National Champion Northwestern earned Academic Squad honors, as did national runner-up Penn and national semifinalist Syracuse.

IWLCA Announces Division I Academic Honor Roll
159 student-athletes recognized for excellence in the classroom

10 August 2008

The IWLCA has announced that 159 Division I student-athletes have earned Academic Honor Roll status for 2008, including five IWLCA/US Lacrosse All-Americans. Players must have achieved at least junior year status and have a minimum GPA of 3.2. Iona College led all teams with eight student-athletes so named; Marist, Robert Morris and Vermont each had six honorees while Penn State was honored with five recipients. National Champion Northwestern had two recipients, as did national runner-up Penn.

Jessica Bill, a senior attacker from Drexel, is the 2008 IWLCA Scholar-Athlete of the Year. She is an architectural engineering major who led her team with 39 goals and 46 points in 2008. A second-team All-CAA honoree, she was named a 2008 CAA Commissioner's Cup recipient. Student-athletes who are also All-Americans include Cornell's Katherine Simmons, New Hampshire's Michaela Hardy, Northwestern's Hilary Bowen, and Penn's Sarah Waxman and Tara Kirnan. Waxman is the 2008 C. Markland Kelly National Goalkeeper of the Year.

IWLCA Announces Division II Academic Honor Roll
45 student-athletes recognized for excellence in the classroom

10 August 2008

The IWLCA has announced that 45 Division II student-athletes have earned Academic Honor Roll status for 2008, including three IWLCA/US Lacrosse All-Americans. Players must have achieved at least junior year status and have a minimum GPA of 3.2. National runner up C. W. Post, along with Bloomsburg, Molloy and St. Thomas Aquinas, all had four honorees to lead all schools. All-Americans include Theresa Nolan from Belmont Abbey, Mallory Poole from C. W. Post, and Julie Kraus from Southern New Hampshire University.

Poole, the IWLCA Scholar-Athlete of the Year, is a member of the United States national women's lacrosse team. She was the ECC Player of the Year and the NYCAC Women's Lacrosse Scholar-Athlete of the Year. A member of the IWLCA Academic Honor roll from 2005-2007, Poole was a member of the 2008 NCAA All-Tournament Team. A physical education major, she represented the USA at the 2008 Prague Cup.

IWLCA Announces Division III Academic Honor Roll
172 student-athletes recognized for excellence in the classroom

10 August 2008

The IWLCA has announced that 172 Division III student-athletes have earned Academic Honor Roll status for 2008, including 13 IWLCA/US Lacrosse All-Americans. Players must have achieved at least junior year status and have a minimum GPA of 3.2. Wesleyan College and the University of Rochester both led all schools with seven honorees. National Champion Hamilton had two recipients, as did national runner-up Franklin & Marshall College and national semifinalist Salisbury University. All three schools' representatives, the Continentals' Nicole Tetreault and Jen McGowan, F&M's Sarah Meisenberg and Ashley Bevington, and the Sea Gulls' Sue Ackermann and Jessica Chmielewski, were also All-Americans, as was national semifinalist Katie Reuther from TCNJ. Washington & Lee had two All-Americans earn Academic Honor Roll Honors, including National Defender of the Year Kat Michaels as well as teammate Kelsi Robinson. Bowdoin's Bobbi Dennison, Brockport's Courtney Dean, Denison's Ana Sokol, and Williams' Elizabeth Burns were also All-Americans.

Sue Ackermann, the 2008 IWLCA Scholar-Athlete of the Year, led the nation in scoring with 82 goals and 70 assists for 152 points, the second-highest single-season total in Division III history. A member of the Phi Epsilon Kappa Physical Education honors fraternity, Ackermann was the 2008 Scholar-Athlete Award recipient at Salisbury and the 2008 Capital Athletic Conference Player of the Year. A first-team All-American in 2007 and 2008, Ackermann had a GPA of 4.0 during the spring of 2008.
